

Chinese leader Xi Jinping has called for efforts to ensure judicial and procuratorial organs exercise the judicial and procuratorial authority independently, fairly and in accordance with the law....

Main Highlights

Mr Xi Jinping aims to push for

- Scientific legislation
- Strict law enforcement
- Judicial Justice

Priority should be given at all levels to resolve deep-rooted problems, those that impede judicial justice and hamper the capacity to treat each litigation case fairly and just.

Mr Xi urges judicial staffs to live up to the public's expectation with regards to judicial fairness and transparency.

Key Salient Targets

- Keeping in close touch with the public
- Improve judicial transparency
- Provide legal assistance for the less privileged
- Administrative organs to take lead in strictly enforcing the law, protect public interest and maintain social order
- Strengthening supervision over law enforcement to weed out illegal interference and prohibit local or departmental protectionism or corruption that might perverse justice
- Organizations and individuals act in conformity with Constitution and Laws, especially all levels of CPC organizations
- Public education on laws, cultivation of rule-of-law spirit and promotion of a law abiding social environment, where issues are settled legally
- Leading cadres at various levels should take lead in acting by law and this would be a key criterion of the leaders' evaluation

Proposed Principles Changes

- Improve legislative planning to highlight priorities
- Combine making, amendment and annulment of laws
- Enhance legislative mechanism and procedures
- Increase involvement and participation from the public and all other parties
